

Sunday 20th October 2019
Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

10.30 Holy Communion

Welcome to our Festival Eucharist this morning and to a different lay-out. Sometimes such changes cause us to come to God differently and we may notice things we wouldn't in the regular set up. We worship among works of art which tell the story of God and his people and ponder what it means to be part of this big story.

The service is led by Rev Gill Sakakini

The order of service is in the booklet.

Hymns:	Blessed assurance	67
	Come on and celebrate	114
	Jesus is lord	344
	Gloria	49 in supplement
	You shall go out with joy	754

Readings: 2 Timothy 3. 14 - 4. 5
Luke 18. 1-8

Everyone is invited to take communion or receive a blessing.
Gluten-free wafers and non-alcoholic wine are available.

There is no collection during the service but there is a plate near the door for donations to St Mary's. If you pay tax, please use a Gift Aid envelope so the church can reclaim the tax.

Please stay for refreshments and a chat in the hall after the service.

18.00 Evening Community at St Luke's
led tonight by Rev Cathy Pynn. Coffee from 5.30pm

Tadley Autumn Arts Festival 19 - 25 October

This started yesterday and will include visual arts, music and theatre. There are exhibitions around the town in cafés, shops, schools and churches. The idea is to open arts to all in the community.

Take a leaflet for anyone you know who might be interested or see the Facebook page.

The Imaging the Story art exhibition will be open throughout the festival from 10-4 in St Mary's.

Pumpkin Carving

Tuesday 29th October from 10-12:30. We welcome contributions of cakes and biscuits and would be grateful of pairs of hands and people around to talk and help all keep safe! We may well have large numbers like last year!

Memorial Service

Sunday November 3rd at 4pm at St Mary's. An opportunity to remember loved ones, bring a small memento and light a candle
